Today's game with Southeast Missouri marks the Hilltoppers' last home game this season. Co-captains Willie Watson and Willard Price have led their teammates to six wins and one loss as Western has established itself as one of the top offensive teams among the small colleges in the nation. In passing offense the Hilltoppers rank third with 1,479 yards as 153 passes have been attempted and 97 completed.

In total offense the Hilltoppers went to the 3,044-yard mark against Eastern last Saturday when 439 yards were rolled up for an average of 434.9 per game. The 48-6 defeat pinned on Eastern pushed Western's total points scored for the season to 249, an all-time high for a Western team.

In every department, both offensive and defensive, the Hilltoppers this year have been outstanding. The iron-clad defensive unit has stopped numerous scoring threats by the opponents and turned the opposition's errors into scores for Western. Pass interceptions, recovered fumbles, blocked kicks, etc., have been commonplace in every game as Walter Apperson, Red Patterson, Max Stevens and Company rocked and socked.

When the Hilltoppers go on the offense, Jimmy Feix directs the attack behind an impregnable line which opens huge holes for such powerful and rapid runners as Gene McFadden, John Sowders, Jim Sanford, Willie Watson, Ray Nutter, Max Stevens and a host of others. Once the ball carrier is loose, vicious and deadly blocking clears the path.

When the Hilltoppers take to the air Feix has plenty of sticky-fingered receivers in Bill Ploumis, Stevens, R. H. Simpson, Jack Binkley, Sowders, McFadden, in fact any of the Hilltoppers are capable pass receivers.

So today one of Western's greatest football teams closes out the season at home. This spectacular combine will long be remembered. Next week the rip 'em up, team 'em up Hilltoppers go to Murray for their last game of the season and resume a rivalry of long standing with the Thoroughbreds.
